JOURNALISTS RALLY ON BEHALF OF RCTV

Reporters, press workers and information media teachers and students will stage a demonstration on Tuesday, May 1st, International Labor Day, for freedom of expression, against insecurity and for autonomy of trade unions, reported the board of directors of the National Union of Press Workers (SNTP).

The International Labor Day "will be the timing for the working class, and the Venezuelan people as a whole, to express their most sensitive claims in the highest spirit of unit and solidarity," said a SNTP communiqué.

"On the domestic present conditions, and in the face of the most serious announcement made by the national government to close next May 27th the main TV channel in the country, the fight for freedom of expression, right to work and, in general, human rights, unifies the Venezuelan people," claimed Gregorio Salazar, speaking on behalf of the board of directors.
